Change of Plans

by Nightcrawler247

Summary

Hannibal thought, as he was framing Will for murder, that he would be content with the man's hate and fascination for him. That the intense emotion was enough. He didn't need love in return.

That is until he goes to sleep and lives a world we're Will loves him return and decides... maybe he's not okay with just framing him and receiving his hate.

Hannibal wants his love more, so he changes his plans.

See the end of the work for more notes

Hannibal thought he'd always be content with Will's hate over his love.

That he would be happy so long as he was a major force in Wills life that couldn't be ignored.

Turns out he was wrong.
